GERMAN MALT BEER EXTRACT.

This Extract makes one of the most delicious summer drinks in use. It is refreshing and cooling to the blood after over-work; stimulating the digestive organs, increasing the appetite, and it is used extensively on the tables, instead of hot tea and coffee, which are expensive, and also heating to the blood. It is Nature's own stimulant in the hay field; every farmer should have it, as the men can do more work by using the beverage, for the reason that they do not have to use as much to quench their thirst, as of other drinks, nor does it make them have a languid feeling. It is easily prepared.

One bottle makes six gallons of beer.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

A bold attempt to steal the horse of Sophia Millett, of Greene, was made one night last week. The horse was taken from the stable, but freed himself and came back next day with the thief's halter on. Tramps are suspected.

An Auburn man sells a ton of oleomargarine per week, in that city and Lewiston at 16 cents wholesale. He collects and ships to the factory about a ton of tallow per week, paying 6 cents per pound.

The Lewiston Journal says: Swarms of grasshoppers have attacked the farm of Joshua Lambert, in Durham. They have destroyed fields of oats and wheat and are now gnawing the bark from his currant bushes.

Aroostook.

F. Shaw & Bros. will rebuild at once the bark extract works lately destroyed by fire, at Houlton.

Mr. J. W. Gay, postmaster of Caribou, is having a large mill built on a stream about two miles from that place, for the sawing of shingles, boards, clapboards, etc.

Cumberland.

Mr. Edmund Winship, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Portland, died in that city, Sunday, aged eighty-five years and eight months. Mr. Winship had served in the Common Council as a representative of ward 3 during 1840-41-42 and '44.

Thursday night a woman tried to lower herself from a third story window at the Portland city Alms House. But the rope broke and she fell quite a distance, breaking her wrist and sustaining other severe bruises.

Thursday forenoon Mrs. Catherine Cary, living on Washington street, Portland, fell head first into a well. She was quickly rescued from her perilous position, and strange to say she sustained no serious damages.

Daniel Stackpole, who for years has driven an express team in Portland, a short time ago hurt his hand. A few days ago lockjaw set in and he died Saturday night.

News was received in Portland, Saturday, of the death of Dr. E. F. Ripley, the well-known veterinary surgeon, which took place at Colorado Springs, Thursday last. He went out there some months since for his health, but instead of receiving benefit, he grew rapidly worse. He was about sixty-two years of age.

Kennebec.

The Journal says Edward E. Wiggin, of Augusta, was thrown from his carriage at Waterville, Saturday night, and both bones in the right leg were broken short off just above the right ankle, the splinters protruding through the flesh. The Pullman waited 35 minutes at Waterville until arrangements could be made to convey the injured man to Augusta. The surgeons found four inches of the fibula, small bone, entirely gone, and some two inches of the tibia, large bone, were shattered into fragments. The splinters of the bone were removed so that the sound ends of the tibia could be united and held in place by surgical appliances until they knit together. It is hoped that the limb will be saved.

The Reporter says some of the citizens of Gardiner took some action toward erecting a cotton factory, but the enterprise seems to have died out.

Knox.

The Camden Herald says there is some excitement over some fine looking pearls found in some clam shells taken from a brook near the river, at Appleton.

Two young men named Charles Piper and Joseph Dillingham were drowned, at about noon, Saturday, in Rockland harbor. They had been out sailing and on their return left the boat at anchor, and were coming ashore in a punt. In getting into the punt it was upset and both were drowned before assistance could reach them. The accident was seen by many persons on shore.

Lincoln.

Oxford.

The Argus says that one day last week a cow in the pasture of Mr. Walker, of the Woodlawn farm, in Fryeburg, dropped a calf, which was frightened by some boys a few hours after, when the youthful bovine with tail on high made a mad dash for the Saco river near at hand. This was crossed by fording and swimming, and the calf disappeared in the woods. Diligent search failed to find the adventurous youngster and it was given up for lost. At the expiration of three days, however, it was found in the pasture again beside its mother, having fasted some seventy-four hours, spent two nights in the woods, and recrossed the Saco. Mr. Walker thinks that calf must be a good one.

Piscataquis.

Mr. Alphonzo Bradeen, at his mill on Schoodic Stream, and Mr. John A. Perkins on Cold Brook Stream, are manufacturing and taking to market large quantities of spool timber and heading.

Washington.

Mrs. Margaret Edgecomb, of Pembroke, was one hundred years old the 18th day of August. She has never worn a pair of spectacles in her life, and can see to read without their aid at the present time.

York.

Walter Staples' store in Elliot was broken into Thursday night. Although the goods were thrown about a good deal but little has been missed.

Mr. S. E. Perry, of Limerick, while cutting his meadow grass, last Monday, had an odd adventure with fire. While the men were eating their noon lunch he sought to improve the time by burning off a few brush piles. The fire took wind and getting beyond his control swept over the field, burning not only the hay that had been mowed but swept down the standing grass like dry stubble, and only ceased when there was no more grass to burn.

Frank Frye, of Berwick, fell off a staging at Dover, N. H., falling a distance of thirty feet, Saturday. His head struck on the ground first and his skull was broken. He died twenty minutes later. He was fifty years old, leaves a widow and two children.

Last Friday evening, Daniel Mayo, of Beech Woods, was thrown from a carriage at Rockland, and it is thought fatally injured.

A CRASH ON THE KAATERSKILL.

THE WALKING-BEAM BREAKS AND CAUSES MUCH DAMAGE—A MAN FATALLY INJURED.

A curious accident happened to the steamer Kaaterskill, of the Catskill Evening Line, Saturday morning, by which five passengers were scalded, one fatally. While the boat was midway between Stony Mountain at the foot of which the State encampment was held, and Caldwell's Landing, the walking-beam broke about four feet from the rod connecting with the shaft, and as the wheels continued to revolve with the momentum of the boat, the heavy rod dashed through the hurricane deck, breaking the central mast in three pieces and tearing away the wood-work and stair-ways down to the lower deck. In its fall the rod struck one of the steam-pipes, cutting off a section, and the steam in rushing out filled the cabin and extinguished all the lights. The noise awakened the passengers, and they crowded into the main and upper saloons. Deputy Warden Russell, of Bellevue Hospital, was among the passengers. He was on the way to New York with the body of his mother. Mr. Russell had a state-room off the upper saloon. When the crash came he left his state-room in a dazed condition, and fell over the bannisters through the well-hole to the main saloon. While he did not apparently receive any injuries, he suffered severely from the shock. On the lower deck, close to the engine-room, was a pile of bales of hay, upon which a number of Italian laborers were sleeping. When the steam rushed through the boat Chance Garlai, Pietro Ammioona, and Michelo di Gerdijol were scalded, the first named, fatally. Mrs. S. W. Green, the wife of the local freight agent of the line at Catskill, and Miss Mary Hinman, her sister, occupied a stateroom off the main saloon. They rushed into the saloon at the sound of the crushing timbers, and were badly scalded. There were 100 passengers on the boat. They behaved in an intelligent manner, and were ultimately taken off by the steamboat William B. Redfield, which plies between Athens and New York. Mrs. Green and her sister were sent home by train; Mr. Russell and the Italian Garlai were removed to Bellevue Hospital, and the other two Italians had their injuries dressed at the Chambers-Street Hospital and went to their homes. Garlai died three hours after his admission to the hospital. During the day some of his friends called at the Morgue and stated that they were too poor to pay the expenses of Garlai's funeral, and he will be buried by the City authorities. The Kaaterskill came to anchor off Peekskill, and early Saturday morning the steam-boat William Fletcher and a tug-boat towed her to the dock. Mr. D. M. Snyder the President of the line, estimated the damage to the boat at between $15,000 and $20,000. He said she made her first trip "three weeks ago." She was launched on March 29, and is the largest boat ever built on the Upper Hudson. She has three decks, is 261 feet 4 inches long, 38 feet breadth of beam, and her boilers are 34 feet long.

Capt. James Stead, of the Kaaterskill, said that the boat left Catskill at 7 o'clock Friday evening. The night was clear, and he prepared to retire about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. He had removed his outer clothing, when he heard a crash below. Going to the pilot-house he asked the pilot what he had struck. The pilot said "the noise came from below." The Captain went down to the lower deck, the lights going out as he did so. He assured himself that the boat was not on fire and was not leaking, and then he went into the saloon and assured the passengers that there was no danger. They were greatly excited, but became calm when he informed them that the worst was over. When the lamps were relighted the passengers surveyed the damage and, dressing themselves, went aboard the Redfield, which had gone alongside in the meantime.

D. Lasher, the engineer, said he could not account for the accident. He had just retired to his stateroom when the succession of crashes" alarmed him as well as the passengers. When he opened the door of his stateroom and found the saloon full of steam he went out and climbed over the hurricane-deck and down into the engine-room. The steam was so dense that he and his assistant engineer made three attempts to reach the safety-valve before they were successful. He had examined the broken machinery and found the cylinder and condenser broken, but the "piston was all right." He had not thoroughly examined the bed-plate, but from a casual inspection of it he thought it was not broken.

Mr. W. Fletcher, of the firm of W. & A. Fletcher, the builders of the engines, said he was at a loss to account for the accident. The only suggestion he could make was that water might have got into the cylinder, but he had been assured by the engineer that such was not the case. He said he should "have the man who forged the walking-beam make an examination of the work" tomorrow in order to determine the question as to whether or not there was any flaw in the iron-work.

THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW for September opens with an article on "Political Assessments," by Dorman B. Eaton. "Oaths in Legal Proceedings," by Judge Edward A. Thomas, is a discussion of the question whether the interests of morality and of public justice alike, would not be promoted by the abrogation of all laws requiring testimony to be given under the sanction of an oath. Thompson B. Maury, late of the Signal Office, contributes an article on "Tornadoes and their Causes," which, in addition to its scientific interest, possesses the merit of suggesting many practical measures for averting disaster to life and property from wind-storms. "Architecture in America," by Clarence Cook, is marked by a freedom of utterance that is refreshing. In this respect it deserves to rank with Commander Gorringe's celebrated paper on the United States Navy. Augustus G. Cobb writes of "Earth-Burial and Cremation," and J. F. Manning, in an article entitled "The Geneva Award and the Ship-Owners" sets forth the justice of the claims of consignors of cargoes and owners of vessels to indemnification out of the Geneva Award fund, for losses from the acts of Confederate cruisers. The Review is sold by booksellers and news-dealers generally.

PER ORDER OF CLASS COM

TO OUR READERS.

As an active participation in the campaign henceforward will require Mr Boutelle to be absent from Bangor more or less continuously, he has temporarily assigned the management of the political column of the paper to other hands We are fortunate in securing the assistance of Mr Joseph W Bartlett, formerly editor of this paper and a journalist of wide experience, who has kindly consented to render us his valuable aid during the present canvass

THE PROPRIETORS

BEWARE OF HIS TRICKS.

There are many evidences that Plaisted has abandoned all hope of being elected Governor A united and solid Republican front against a distracted and "rattled" opposition would teach even a more obtuse sensibility than his that his doom is sealed so far as favors direct from the people are concerned But men of small calibre fail to recognize the low level of their merits, and Plaisted actually aspires to succeed Senator Frye in the upper branch of the National Legislature Where he is best known, this is sufficient to settle the contest against him in advance, and he knows that he will lose strength in the State Legislature from Penobscot county for the very reason that he is the Fusion candidate for Senator But where he is not known so well he is still-hunting for representatives to the Legislature, and the forced loan extracted from the Fusion officials and candidates means a corruption fund in Plaisted's interest solely. Everybody who knows Plaisted's methods puts full confidence in the report that he is preparing to traffic in votes for the accomplishment of his purpose. In close legislative districts he will offer to swap, hoping that some Republicans may be willing to give him votes for the Legislature for the sake of votes in return to make sure of the State and Congressional ticket He will try to swap off Dane first, it is supposed, and he thinks it will be easy to chip in a few Murch votes in pursuance of his little game. And even his boon companions, Ladd and Thing, need not feel absolutely safe from his encroachments where they can be used better than others, namely, in their home markets. Gov Plaisted is for Harris M Plaisted every time, and he will stop at no expedient, spare no friend, be discouraged by no obstacle in his mad chase for the new honor he aspires to.

It is humiliating for people who have regard for the Senatorial dignity to reflect that such a man as Plaisted has the remotest hope of reaching that elevation From the high position of Fessenden, Hamlin, Blaine, Frye and Hale, to the depths in politics of the Foggs, the Murches, and the Plaisteds, would be a tumble from which no State could recover in a decade if ever. But it must be admitted that Plaisted is the only Fusion candidate for Senator, and the danger is in the methods he will use to hoodwink honest voters We repeat, there is no danger where Plaisted is known, for there the very announcement of his Senatorial aspirations will bring support to the Republican legislative ticket But in distant counties where the parties were evenly divided in 1880, he is already practicing his part

There is but one course open for Republicans to pursue, and that is to refuse all compromise for any purpose or for any candidate A full vote will elect the entire Republican ticket, and no legislative vote need be sacrificed to ensure that end Enter into no alliance with anybody who pretends that such expedients are necessary for any particular candidate, for that is delusion, and will not be urged except to cheat Poll the full vote, and the State ticket will be elected by a handsome majority Poll the full vote, and the legislature will be Republican by an increased majority Plaistedism is making a desperate effort for life, but the death rattle is already in its throat, and no Republican should let go his hold anywhere

A DISTRACTED PARTY

It will now be in order for the old Bourbon organs to pounce down upon Mr Washington Gilbert and denounce him as they have Solon Chase John White and other Greenbackers who refuse to train with them under the command of a neutral tinted candidate for Governor Last year all these come outers were in the fold with their present detractors and their characters were altogether lovely and their acts were potent and welcome adjuncts of the campaign. This year they have switched off and the side track is getting so fully occupied that it seems to bid fair for an able-bodied rivalry of the trunk line.

The matter in all this of chief interest to the outside public is the distraction which seems to leave neither faction in a condition for a powerful campaign For weeks the Democrats on the one side and the Greenbackers on the other have been flinging hot denunciation at each others, heads so industriously that it seems as if they had forgotten that there was a great Republican party marching in solid column right through their shattered ranks to victory

The wonder is that this disjointed Fusion party has held together so long In a fit of displeasure once Tom Benton described a similar organization as "held together by the cohesive power of public plunder and the love of rum" But there are many temperance men among the Fusionists, and many who have no expectation of public plunder Therefore by the very rule which had seemed to apply elsewhere this inconsistent body must sooner or later go to pieces, and the men who do not believe Benton's description seem to think it had better be sooner than most people anticipated

Look at the ingredients of this hodge podge, and judge whether it could hold together through the boiling process of a campaign, where every man's views and professions are supposed to be put to the test Plaisted has a variety of principles to suit occasion, he has been all things to all men and his latest anchorage is Greenbackism with a saving clause Ladd is denounced by the Greenbackers in Congress as a native born Bourbon and Murch as of more liberal instincts, but corrupted by association Thing's last party affiliation was with Republicans but he declares now that he will forever and ever stand with the Democrats although we believe he was nominated as a qualified Greenbacker, and his Democracy may be said to be in the form of a codicil Dane is a stiff old Whig transmogrified into a Bullion Democrat of the hardest kind Can honest men mix such foreign materials as these to their satisfaction and credit? The best answer to this question is the splitting process that is cleaving both sides of this arrangement and we find real satisfaction in viewing the solid blows the factions are dealing each other The chameleon ticket is a thing fair to look upon by a people of neutral view, but the people of Maine have already determined that dynamite and fire are not sufficiently fusable to satisfy them

STRAYED, OR STOLEN, OR WHAT?

From the southwest corner of the second page of the Commercial of last evening we clip the following funeral announcement

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION

The Democratic County Convention met at City Hall this forenoon The meeting was called to order at 10 30, and James Tobin, Esq, called to the chair The chairman read the call, that part which provided for the nomination of a county ticket was, upon motion, passed over as inexpedient A committee of three—J F Wilson, of Orono, James Rawson, of Bangor, and Wm Harris, Jr, of Dixmont—was appointed by the chair to report a list of five names for the county committee The committee reported as follows W Y Patch, Bangor, E N. Mayo, Orono, Wm Harris, Jr, Dixmont, Timothy Batchelder, Kenduskeag, Jeremiah N Page, Burlington There being no further business to transact, the convention adjourned at 11 o'clock.

For weeks that paper has advertised a Democratic County Convention and this purports to be the thing itself, the Commercial probably doing the best it can in the way of a report Some people might be uncharitable enough to designate this slender outcome as a great wash but a little hang-out

Where is the Democratic party? Has it been sold out? Knocked down to the highest bidder, or, like the town's poor, to the responsible party who will take care of it while it lingers, and when dead give it a decent burial? As Republicans we feel interested in this question, for the Democratic party in days gone by used to afford us a good deal of amusement during the campaign, and sometimes arose to the dignity of real antagonism. We grieve to part with our old if not esteemed friend in this summary way, and we are ashamed of veterans like Mr. James Tobin and Mr. James Rawson for consenting to take part in what seems to a looker-on like a premature administration upon the effects of the Democratic party. What other interpretation can be put upon this report? "The chairman read the call," and we can easily imagine with what pathos he read it, for the report continues "that part which provided for the nomination of a county ticket was passed over as inexpedient" That is, having met to appoint grooms and maids for a wedding, they found the conditions unfavorable, and therefore proceeded to appoint pall bearers The friends of the departed will be consoled to learn that the funeral was a quiet and temperate one and that twenty-five persons followed the lamented remains to the grave.

A CLOUD BURST OR A SHOWER?

Just as we expected Judge Gilbert, who was the Fusion candidate for Congress in the Second District last year and who is still a member of the Fusion State Committee, has suddenly dwindled away, and is of no sort of consequence any more Plaisted's Bangor organ sobs aloud and yet smiles through its tears because Judge Gilbert has thus demonstrated his insignificance—not, of course, because of his loss It heads the news of this defection a "Small Loss," and then proceeds thus.

"Judge Gilbert, of Bath, who ran for Congress last year on a narrow and proscriptive Greenback platform and was beaten by 5,000 majority AS HE DESERVED TO BE, and who failed to secure a renomination on the Union ticket this year, is naturally disgusted with Fusion, and after getting two "Straight Greenbackers" to write him a letter asking him to "define his position" has prepared a reply which will be published in that Republican annex organ, the Bangor Messenger, this week"

We are about equally sorry for Plaisted and Judge Gilbert, and therefore both will excuse us for emphasizing some of the above language in conspicuous type There are a few things we cannot reconcile in this world, besides the wrangling Fusionists How, for instance, shall we reconcile Judge Gilbert's former standing as a leader of the Fusion rank and file with the Fusion theory that he deserved to be beaten for Congress as the Fusion candidate? How shall we reconcile his membership of the Fusion State Committee with the declaration that his absence is a small loss? These things are confusing to plain people Many persons will be reminded by this paragraph of the fellow who stood on a rock and hailed Noah's ark as it rapidly passed him by on the rising flood "Darn your old raft!" he said, "I don't want to get aboard This is nothing but a shower anyway"

MORE DEFECTIONS

Several more holes have been punched in the Fusion bubble since Judge Gilbert repudiated Plaisted A special despatch from Augusta this morning reports that Mr Mackie, a Democrat and Fusionist and a leader among the working classes, has come squarely over into the Republican party A despatch from Paris reports that Mr Sewall Goff, member of the Greenback County Committee of Oxford, publishes a letter in the Oxford Democrat, resigning on account of fusion.

These are not simply Fusion losses, as in the case of Judge Gilbert but they are Republican gains They are gains of men who are not afraid to stand up and be counted There will be more forthcoming from both sides of the Fusion fold Democrats and Greenbackers alike are growing restive under the double-shuffle arrangement fixed up for the benefit of Plaisted, Ladd & Co There is always room for one more in the Republican camp, (although we are crowding each other a little just now) and the banner flies for all

A SPLENDID MEETING

[Kennebec Journal, Aug 22]

The Republicans of this city held a splendid meeting at Meonian Hall last evening Long before the hour appointed for the meeting the hall was packed full of people and hundreds went away during the course of the evening who could not obtain admittance. Hon. Nelson Dingley, Jr, made a very able and clear argument in support of the Republican party upon State and National issues involved in the campaign, while Captain Charles A. Boutelle, of Bangor, made an earnest and telling speech upon State issues Our citizens were highly pleased with the meeting Mr. Dingley is well and favorably known to our citizens by his public services, and Capt Boutelle made a most excellent impression upon all who heard him Both gentlemen will receive the united and hearty support of the Republicans of the Kennebec valley This meeting starts the political ball moving in a very lively manner

CAMPAIGN NOTES

"H. K. B.," doubtless Judge Baker, in the Hallowell Gazette, says We have a Governor who was never elected to the office by the people, nor by any rightful authority H M. Plaisted was voted for when the Constitution required a majority of votes to elect, and he had not a majority, but only a plurality It is true the Constitution was afterward amended, so that now an election may be made by a plurality But this amendment was not affected until the votes upon adopting it were counted and declared. Yet the Legislature, under the influence of politicians, declared Plaisted Governor That they did this without authority of law, I have the opinion of many eminent lawyers Plaisted therefore is Governor de facto, but not de jure. In strictness of law, and under constitutional provisions, he never was chosen Governor and is only a creature of a majority of the Legislature

The number of honest Greenbackers, as well as honest Democrats who will refuse to be sold out to Governor Plaisted and Fusion, will surprise the Fusion leaders when the votes shall be counted on the 11th of September —Lewiston Journal.

The Plaisted organs are greatly disturbed because Mr Wm W. Thomas presided at the great Republican rally in Portland a few days ago. It is annoying, this way Republicans have of harmonizing their differences and coming up to the support of candidates and principles. But Republicans can't help it, harmony is in their platform, in their candidates, in their masses, and in the belief they have that victory is assured to them. They would be very happy to accommodate the distracted opposition by slight inharmonious demonstrations here and there, just to make things lively, but it's absolutely impossible to get up one. Republicans are one and indivisible, and this is not a good year for quarrels.

Yes, verily, some observers so sharp as to justify the suspicion that they have been whetted upon the damp side of a whiskey bottle.

An Augusta despatch to Plaisted's Bangor organ insinuates that Judge Gilbert sold out to Solon Chase or unknown. This is a matter about which the Republicans feel little concern. But really we would like to know if in the average Fusion opinion the whole Fusion show is for sale, or whether the attractions are to be sold piece meal?

Charitable Associations.
Hospitals and charitable associations are justly regarded as doing a noble work in relieving the necessities or soothing the dying beds of a comparatively small number of people. But the life insurance companies of the country are paying out over $600,000 a week to save women and children from poverty and men from an old age of penury

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1882.

BY TELEGRAPH.

MAINE NEWS.

STILL THEY COME!

Another Voter Tired of Fusion and will Act with the Republicans.

[Special to Whig and Courier.]

AUGUSTA, Aug. 22. At a meeting of the Robie Club this evening Mr. Ira L. Mackie, a life long Democrat and Fusionist, joined the club and has declared his purpose to hereafter act with the Republicans. Mr. Mackie is one of our best and most intelligent mechanics and he has been a very active and influential worker in the ranks of the Democratic party. He has become thoroughly disgusted with Plaistedism and proposes to aid materially in overthrowing this demagogue and consigning him to political retirement in September next.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

Hancock Fusionists—Plaisted's First Appearance.

ELLSWORTH, Aug. 22. The Fusion County Convention for Hancock County was held here to-day and nominated for Senators, A. P. Currier, of Sedgwick, Calvin Kingman, of Waltham; Sheriff, Levi B. Wyman, of Ellsworth; Treasurer, Thomas H. Swazey, of Bucksport; County Commissioners, Calvin P. Jordan, of Ellsworth, Wm. P. White, of Orland; Register of Deeds, Malby Kingman, of Mariaville. There was no nomination for County Attorney, that being left to the committee. The candidates for Senators, County Commissioners and Register of Deeds are Greenbackers; the Sheriff and Treasurer are Democrats. Gov. Plaisted addressed a large audience in Hancock Hall in the afternoon.

PORTLAND, Aug. 22. The Advertiser reports a meeting of the Independent Republicans yesterday, at the Preble House, and another to-day at which the following nominations were made: Governor, Warren H. Vinton, of Gray; Congressmen, first district, James W. Stone, of Kennebunk; second, Nelson Dingley, Jr., of Lewiston, third, Chester Nash, of Augusta; fourth, Daniel Stickney, of Presque Isle. Another meeting will be held this week to nominate candidates for county offices. These meetings were private consultations—not publicly known.

A Brutal Husband.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 22. The wife of Charles Hutchins, of Kittery, whom he knocked down stairs recently on account of neglecting to sew buttons on prompt enough to satisfy him will recover from the effects unless brain fever sets in. Two physicians are in attendance. Hutchins is quite prominent and the matter has been kept very quiet.

SINGULAR PHENOMENON.

A White Belt of Water.

GLOUCESTER, Aug. 22. The returning mackerel fishermen continue to bring accounts of white water previously reported off Monhegan. The belt of colored water is reported as extending in width and is believed to have the effect of driving the mackerel to the southward and eastward. The water is represented as being very transparent, mackerel being seen in it at a distance of a mile from the vessel, but what depth is not known, seines 25 fathoms deep failing to reach them. At that depth the bottom of the seines can be plainly discerned. The United States Fish Commissioner is conducting inquiries to ascertain if possible the cause of the phenomenon.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Meeting of the Supreme Lodge.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 22. The Supreme Lodge of the World, Knights of Pythias, convened here to-day. The event was made the occasion for a grand gathering of the members of the Order from all parts of the country. Up to midnight about 1,500 had reached the city. As many more are expected to-day.

THE PRESIDENT

En Route for Newport.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22. President Arthur, accompanied by ex-Private Secretary Reed, one of the recently appointed Commissioners to inspect the Northern Pacific Railway, left his house at 12.30 P. M., to-day, en route for Newport.

Arrival at Newport.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 22. President Arthur, accompanied by his son and private secretary and Secretary Frelinghuysen, Attorney-General Brewster, General Hancock, Mrs. Frelinghuysen, and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Jewell arrived here from New York on the steamer Eolus at 5.15 to-night. The President was met at the wharf by ex-Governor Morgan, of New York, whose guest he will be during his Newport visit. Gen. Hancock went to the Ocean House, while the other members of the party were taken to cottages as the guests of personal friends. There were no formalities, the President simply dining with Gov. Morgan and family. To-morrow he will visit Fort Adams, attend Gov. Morgan's reception and formally receive the Governor and State officials and Mayor and city officials.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Mules for Egypt.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22. The English steamer Castalia has been chartered to load 500 mules at this point to be taken to Alexandria, Egypt, for the English Government.

Ex-Senator Cameron on the Political Situation.

Ex-Senator Cameron, speaking in regard to the Independent movement in Pennsylvania, to-day, said its support was traceable to free traders of all sections of the country. The design to defeat the Republican party in the State was, he said, originated by the opponents of protection. If the State was captured they could then, with the aid of the Democrats, get control of the National affairs.

MASSACHUSETTS.

A Serious Charge.

LAWRENCE, Aug. 22. This afternoon Charles Cote, Government contractor and builder, was arrested on the charge of threatening the life of Mrs. W. S. Anderson, and also attempting to extort money from her. Mrs. Anderson keeps a millinery store. She alleges that Cote has been forcing his attentions upon her, and upon their rejection threatened to shoot her. This afternoon he went to her store and in hearing of officers concealed offered not to trouble her more if she would give him $75. He claims that Mrs. Anderson owes him $150, which she will not pay. A few weeks since the woman's store was burglarized, and $400 stolen, and the following day he presented her with a check of $150. Cote will be arraigned in the police court to-morrow.

THE WORK OF FIENDS.

An attempt to Wreck a Train.

CONCORD, Aug. 22. An attempt was made yesterday afternoon to wreck the up passenger train to the White Mountains, at Woodsville. Pieces of iron were spiked to the sleepers on each side of the track on a sharp curve and the locomotive was thrown twenty feet down an embankment. The passenger cars were derailed, but no one was hurt.

AFFAIRS IN IRELAND.

The Recent Murders.

LONDON, Aug. 22. Later reports show that the murder of farmer Leahey, near Killarney, was more like a military execution than a murder. Five young men, sons of farmers, have been arrested on suspicion of complicity in the murder.

The Joyce Murder.

DUBLIN, Aug. 22. The police of Cong have found four persons who, fearing that their own relatives were about to be attacked, followed the murderers of the Joyce family from the house where they had assembled to the Joyce's house and heard the shrieks of the victims.

Identification.

The Cong police have found three eye witnesses to the massacre of the Joyce family who have positively identified ten of the prisoners. Another witness has identified four of the ten as having been overheard planing the murder.

The police believe the tragedy to be the direct outcome of the secret societies with which the west of Ireland is permeated. The witnesses are under police protection and their names are withheld. It is believed the trial of the prisoners will begin in a few days before the Judges of the Common Court here. The inhabitants of the Cong district profess the liveliest joy at the capture of the band which had long been a terror to honestly dispos ed persons.

Sentenced to be Hung.

In the Common Court to-day, Patrick Walsh was found guilty of murder, committed in April 1881, of Martin Lyden. He was sentenced by Judge Lawson to be hanged September 2d.

Lord Spencer

has declined to hold an inquiry into the conduct of the jury who convicted Hynes, but intends to examine the affidavits submitted to him in that case in order to ascertain if sufficient grounds exist for interfering with the due course of the law.

THE EGYPTIAN QUESTION.

Another Decree.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 22. The Khedive has issued another decree to the authorities to implicitly obey General Wolsley, who, he says, is authorized to restore order in Egypt.

Telegraph Lines Cut.

A Sensation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 22. Sheik Ul Islan and the minister of finance visited Lord Dufferin, British ambassador, to-day, and delievered to him a message from the Sultan. The visit caused a sensation.

Another Engagement.

ISMAILIA, Aug. 22—9 A. M. The landing of troops from transports proceeded actively all night and continues to-day. Gen. Wolsely visited M. DeLesseps yesterday and explained the action of the British in regard to the Suez Canal. He said everything would be over in a few days, but the English must use the canal for the present. M. DeLesseps expressed himself as fully satisfied with Gen. Wolseley's explanation. Yesterday the seventy-second regiment engaged the enemy at Serapoum and repulsed them. Two of our men were killed and five wounded. The enemy lost one hundred men and four guns.

BOY RUN OVER BY A JIGGER. The cries of a boy on Kenduskeag bridge attracted considerable attention between five and six yesterday afternoon. It seems that a little fellow came in the way of a passing jigger and one of the wheels passed over both of his limbs. The heavy jigger was fortunately not loaded and it was found upon examination that the youth had escaped without any serious injuries. The boy was the youngest son of Mr. A. L. Boyd.

A SMART OLD LADY. Mrs. Mary Wight, of West Levant, recently celebrated her 99th birthday by entertaining a large party of friends and neighbors who came and took tea with her, bringing presents and goodies generally for grandmother. The old lady still enjoys company. Her mind is clear, and she is very interesting to talk with. She knits and sews, and takes care of her room. In the three weeks before her birthday she knit a pair of lady's hose. She cuts and makes all her own clothes without the aid of glasses.

A HERO OF THE MEXICAN WAR. Thos. Crawford, late of Co. D, 2d U. S. Infantry, writes to the Aroostook Pioneer from Louisville, Ky.: "I had not heard from my old captain, G. W. Patten, since Nov., '79, until I saw a notice of his death in the Pioneer of May 2d. I am the only living member of his company of 120 men, and am past sixty years old. I was with him in the battle of Cerro Gordo, and early in the morning of the second day's fight he was wounded by a gun shot in the arm. I helped carry him to the rear. I am a cripple, having been wounded six times in the battle of Cherubusco. Although a Southerner I am and always have been for the Union, 'one and inseparable, now and forever.'"

OBITUARY. Hon. Timothy Fuller died at his residence in Lincoln on Monday afternoon at the age of 76 years. The deceased has been prominently identified with the interests of Lincoln, has held various town offices and has been a member of both branches of our State Legislature. Mr. Fuller has for some years been afflicted with stone in the bladder. During the past month his sufferings were intense, and he telegraphed Saturday night for a surgeon from Bangor. He was extremely weak, but concluded that he could not live without an operation and he desired one to be performed at once. A stone weighing two ounces was extracted without apparently reducing his strength, but while his clothing was being changed Monday afternoon, he suddenly fainted and passed away.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING. A boy had a very narrow escape from death by drowning during the latter part of yesterday afternoon. A craft has been lying in the Kenduskeag stream at the foot of York street, having come here from Frankfort with a cargo of paving stones. The young son of the captain of the vessel in some way got in the water and was sinking for the last time when he was finally rescued. It was some minutes before he was brought to after being taken from the water.

At the business meeting of the Association composed of the 2d Maine Cavalry and 14th, 21st, 23d, 24th and 28th Maine Regiments, held at Calais last week, the 22nd Maine Regiment was added to that association, and Captain Wm. B. Taylor, of Calais, late of Co. F., was chosen from that regiment as vice president and Roscoe G. Rollins, of Bangor, corresponding secretary. The 22nd Regiment camped in this city. The time and place of holding the next reunion (1883) was left with the executive committee. Calais and several of the adjoining towns furnished a company (F) for that Regiment.

AN UNCEREMONIOUS LODGER. Last evening as Mrs. Felix Quinn started to retire at her residence on Main street she found the room already occupied and a man sound asleep in the bed. She at once called her husband and after further examination the services of the police were called in. The man was aroused from a drunken stupor and marched to the police station where an examination of his clothing showed that he had not stolen anything while in the house. The fellow came to Bangor yesterday from Great Works where he has been working at his trade of mason on the pulp mill now building there and was on his way to Lewiston, having a ticket for that city in his pocket at the time of his arrest. While here he indulged in the cup which intoxicates and while wandering around during the evening gained access to the residence of Mr. Quinn and established himself for a night's lodging as above described.

I. O. G. T. A correspondent writes: The quarterly session of Waldo District Lodge, I. O. of G. T., was held with Bethel Lodge at East Thorndike, Aug. 19th. There was a good attendance. Twelve lodges were represented by over one hundred and thirty delegates. The session was one of interest and profit and showed that the Good Templars of Waldo County are alive in the temperance cause. Mrs. H. Barstow, Superintendent of Juvenile Temples of this State, was present and addressed the meeting in behalf of her work. There are no Temples in Waldo County. Bethel Lodge, I. O. of G. T., of East Thorndike, installed the following officers for the present quarter: Granville Small, W. C. T.; Abbie Small, W. V. T.; Geo. E. Files, W. S.; C. F. Higgins, W. F. S., and Ida Webb, W. T. The lodge is prosperous, numbering fifty members. One esteemed and beloved sister, Linda M. Snow, died on the 12th inst. She is much missed, having been a charter member, and served several terms, an efficient and faithful officer. Her remains were buried with Good Templar honors, Bro. Geo. E. Files officiating as Chaplain at the grave.

WEST WATERVILLE ITEMS. Our regular correspondent writes from West Waterville: Business is now looking up. The M. C. R. R Co. have just completed two spur tracks, which occupy most of the company's land north of the depot. This improvement was necessary in order to accommodate the rapidly increasing freight traffic here.——The stone work of the iron bridge is almost completed, but on account of the strike among the western iron laborers the laying of the bridge will be somewhat delayed.——Water street citizens are being accommodated with a nice plank sidewalk. This, though "long on the way," is no less welcome, for no street in our village is so bad for pedestrians as that.——B. F. Folger, Esq., is building a house and stable on Cross street.——The Baptist Society decided not to build a new church and have commenced repairs on the old house. I believe that no elaborate changes are to be made. A recess is to be built back of the pulpit and the walls and ceiling are to be frescoed. These improvements will make the house all that is desired at present. The society will have the use of the Free Baptist House while the repairs are making. —The high school will commence next Monday, 28th; the other schools one week later.

MAN SHOT AND HIS BUILDINGS BURNED. A Palmyra correspondent of the Lewiston Journal writes that paper as follows: Mr. W. B. Cookson and wife say that a man called at their house in Palmyra, Wednesday, Aug. 6th, at six o'clock, calling himself A. B. Smith, and selling a recipe for making what he called the celebrated potato bug remedy. He stopped all night with Mr. Cookson, and in the morning while Mr. C. and his wife were at the barn, he stole Mr. Cookson's wallet, containing $4.60, and started towards Newport. Mr. Fernald, while riding towards Newport, saw Smith out by the side of the road opposite some willow bushes and a muck-hole. Mr. Fernald gave Smith a ride towards Newport. Mr. Cookson, after missing his money, followed Smith to Newport and had him searched, but could not find the missing wallet or money about him, but he afterwards did find the wallet without any money in it in the muck-hole opposite where Mr. Fernald first saw Smith. Smith threatened at Newport to take Cookson's life and burn his buildings, and Friday, just before twelve o'clock, while Mr. Cookson was mowing oats, he was fired at by some one secreted behind two fallen trees. The bullet struck in a cap on the fence, within six or eight inches of Mr. Cookson's head. Saturday night, about 9 o'clock, Mr. Cookson's barn was discovered on fire. The barn, house and shed, together with the cow, pig, hay, grain, wood, etc., were burned.

The grand opening rally of the Republican campaign in this city will be held in Norombega Hall on Tuesday evening, August 29th, when the Republicans and other citizens of Bangor will be addressed on the leading issues of the present political canvass by Maine's great statesman, Hon. James G. Blaine, and Gen. William Gibson, Ohio's most famous and eloquent orator. Music will be furnished on this occasion by the Bangor Band. The galleries will be reserved for ladies and their escorts.

AMUSEMENTS.

Season of Comic Opera.

The sale of seats to the entertainments to be given in the Opera House by the Bennett & Moulton Comic Opera Company opens at the box office this morning. The Watertown, N. Y., Times says:

The performances given in Washington Hall yesterday by Bennett & Moulton's Comic Opera Company were unusually good. In the afternoon a fair sized audience was thoroughly delighted with the Magic Slipper. In the evening they appeared to good advantage in the Chimes of Normandy. The music was finely rendered while the acting was faultless. Miss Annie Liebsch in the role of Serpolette displayed a voice of remarkable purity and power. Mamie Bruce as the Marquis, Flora Smith as Jean, and Ben Lodge as the Bailli were all excellent in their parts. The grand Novelty Olio after the Opera pleased the audience greatly. The company is one that all should have seen.

Notes.

"New Jane Eyre" will be played shortly in the Opera House by Charlotte Thompson.

Howorth's Hibernica plays in Norombega Hall on Wednesday, Sept. 13th.

Sadie Martinot does not return to this country next season, as reported in several dramatic papers, but will during 1883-84 star in her plays by Bret Harte, "The Luck" and "Thankful Blossom."

Madame Janauschek is in Germany, and returns to this country in September.

John A. Stevens has been playing in London in "Unknown." All accounts agree that he was successful. He returns in October.

ETNA HEARD FROM.

A Rousing Republican Rally in Western Penobscot.

The Republicans of Etna and vicinity had a grand rally at the Baptist church in that village on Monday evening. A large number were in attendance and were highly entertained by an eloquent speech from Col. Anson S. Wood, of New York, for nearly two hours. He was frequently applauded during his remarks and some of the boys thought the roof of the house would come off.

The speaker portrayed the work that the Republicans had done and what they now had to do with much brilliancy and effect. He told what they had done for twenty-two years and what he expected they would do for the next twenty-two years, and one of the grand objects they had achieved was that of liberating four millions of American born citizens, who they were now educating and qualifying to make eminent members of State and Congressional legislatures. The prosperity of the country under the rule of Republicans was portrayed and a comparison was drawn with Democratic administrations.

NORTHPORT NOTES.

Wesleyan Grove, Sunday, Aug. 20, 1882.

A beautiful Sabbath. The Sea Breeze of last week announced Rev. C. A. Southard as the preacher for to-day, but four other of the Rockland churches being closed, he chose to remain at home. However, a good audience was gathered to listen to a fine discourse by Rev. A. J. Clifford, of Bucksport. His theme was "The unseen" and he ably presented its claims upon us. The congregation was variously estimated from three to four hundred. An interesting praise meeting was held at 3 P. M., and very excellent social services in the Rockland and Unity chapels at 7.30. There are said to be already a thousand persons on the grounds.

Monday, Aug. 21, 1882.

Another beautiful morning dawned upon us. Steamers, coaches, and private conveyances have landed large quantities of living freight. The hammer and saw have been lively. Uncovered frames have grown suddenly white, and smiling faces and happy greetings are to be seen everywhere. We half almost thought everybody was here last week, but we guess as many more have come to-day. At 7.30 P. M. the bell rung us to the stand. No presiding officer was present for which Brother Hitor-mlas thanked God. Rev. C. E. Springer was put in charge till a Presiding Elder should arrive. The service was for prayer and testimony, and was a most blessed season. There were four or five hundred present.

Tuesday, Aug. 22, 1882.

Another magnificent morning. At an early hour the grounds were astir. Still they come by land and water. The hotel is already well filled. No less than seven steamers have this forenoon landed at our wharf. At 9 A. M. a most excellent prayer service conducted by Rev. T. Jewell, of Pittsfield, commenced the exercises of the day. At 10.30 Rev. A. S. Townsend, of Hampden, preached most efficiently from John 21-22, "Follow thou me." It was a most appropriate opening sermon, he spoke of the need of a leader, that progress is made only because of able leadership. This is as true in religious movements as elsewhere, Christ came not only to save but to lead. We should follow Him (1) in his estimate of the world, we think material and temporal things the highest good. Not so Jesus, the world is good only as a stepping stone to something higher, as a sphere in which to get good and do good. We must follow Him here, (2) we must follow Him in the work which He does for humanity. Too much of our thought is given to what we can secure of pleasure or wealth or honors for ourselves. Not so Jesus. He sought to bless others. He pleased not Himself to lift men upward, He gave his life, so must we. (3) We must follow Him in the relations he sustained to God. He took the relation of a subordinate. He became obedient. He depended on the Father. He sought unceasing guidance. He was ever subservient to the divine will, even followed divine direction, so must we. As He communed with the Father and confided in Him, so must we, or no assurance, no restful soul-satisfying repose.

(4) We must follow Him in the victory He had in the world. Many there are who know but little of victory. Passions and ambitions rule. Not so Jesus, He was a victory over Himself, His passions never overpowered Him. His ambitions never misled. He was all alive and always alive to do the will of God. So must we conquer, and the glory of such conquest shall never end.

(5) We must follow Him to Heaven, whither He has gone and thither He invites us. He has gone to prepare a place for us. This is a good world if well used, but there is a better. Christian brother forget not the words of the text are to you. This world it may be feared is drifting away from God, moral restraints are loosening, why, we have not followed Christ as we ought. Sinner, this text is to you. Follow thou Jesus, and ye shall have peace here and Heaven hereafter.

At the close of the sermon a stirring appeal was made by Rev. T. Gerrish, of Bangor. "Campmeeting John" is to preach this P. M.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

August (Criminal) Term.

Hon. JOHN A. PETERS, Justice Presiding.
B. H. MACE, County Attorney.
RUEL SMITH, Clerk.
WOODBURY PULSIFER, Stenographer.

Tuesday, Aug. 22.

The prosecution in the Glynn case closed at 10 o'clock A. M., when Mr. Merrill opened for the defence. The first witness was the prisoner, Mrs. Mary Glynn. She testified that during her husband's sickness her cares for her daughter and her daughter's infant child and other duties about the house were so great that she neglected her husband during his last sickness, refusing, when he requested her on the day before he died, to put a plaster on his side, and that he pronounced a curse upon her, saying that "living or dead" he would have her out of that house before the year expired. For this reason she believes that she was influenced by her deceased husband beyond her own control to take the life of her daughter's child.

She testified that she went to the bed where the child was sleeping with its mother, and took the child in her arms and immediately a "death grab" came over her and she bore the child away to the cellar and there strangled it with a woolen scarf about its neck and buried it in a hole which was dug by her husband in his life time, in which to secrete spirituous liquors; that her senses were gone from her during the act of killing, and she was overcome with grief as soon as her reason was restored, bitterly crying over the dead body for half an hour before she buried it.

The defence is insanity or irresistible impulse and the claim is that the prisoner was passing through a period of life when great grief, extreme poverty or other disturbing surroundings may cause temporary insanity. Drs. Sanger, Jones and Hanson have been called for the defence and examined upon the question of insanity.

A GANG OF FORGERS CAPTURED.

FIVE MEN AND A BOY WHO SWINDLED BUSINESS MEN.

There were locked up in the cells at Police Headquarters in New York, Saturday night six prisoners, who, the detectives say, comprise a gang of clever forgers who for months past have victimized a number of business men and others in that city by means of forged and worthless checks. The prisoners are Charles Willard, alias Allen; Charles A., Place, Albert Mauz, William Garrett, Oscar Nephew, and Julius Bander. The last named is a boy, who was used by the others as a messenger to obtain the money on the bogus checks. Owing to the number of complaints which reached the Central Office from the victims of this gang of sharpers, Inspector Byrnes three weeks ago placed the matter in charge of the detectives named. On June 19, a man who has since been identified as Willard, called on Mr John Dalbert, a confectioner and handed him a note purporting to come from Police Justice Marcus Otterbourg, which read as follows

DEAR SIR Will you please accommodate me by cashing the inclosed check for the bearer, as I would like to use some money this evening. Yours, &c.
MARCUS OTTERBOURG.

P. S.—I have endorsed the check.

The check was drawn on the East River National Bank for $37 to the order of Judge Otterbourg, and signed Ernest Goldstein. It was indorsed with the Judge's name. Mr. Dalbert cashed the check, and the next day discovered that it was worthless. On the 23 inst. Mr Diedericks Herman cashed a worthless check for one of the gang which was drawn to the order of Mr. Jacob Bertsch man, the Swiss Council and was signed by August Schwartz, for $47. Ten days later Mrs. Mina M. Tobb, who keeps a butcher shop, was swindled out of $53 dollars by a worthless check drawn to the order of Dr. James C. Rising, on the German American Bank, and signed by James R. Skeltal. Mr. Herman Greene, who was also swindled out of $47 dollars in a similar manner. In each case the check was accompanied by a note purporting to come from the person to whose order it was drawn requesting the cashing of the check, and invariably this person was either an intimate friend or customer of the victim. It was discovered that the gang made their head-quarters in a lager beer saloon Saturday morning a raid was made on the place and Willard, Place, Mauz, Garrett, and Nephew were captured there in a bunch. They were taken to Police Head-quarters and subsequently arraigned before Justice Patterson in the Tombs police court, who remanded them to give the officers an opportunity to procure the appearance of the complainants. Saturday night the lad Bauder was arrested at his home, and this capture made the gang complete. Detective Adams says that Willard prepared the checks, and the others were concerned in passing them. Several of them were passed by the lad Bauder, who, to facilitate his purpose wore on such occasions a uniform similar to that worn by the American District messenger boys. Nephew is a professional burglar, and his picture is in the Rogue's Gallery. Willard is said to be an Eastern man, and is well known in Boston

A SUCCESSFUL SEARCH.

THE CREW OF THE EIRA FOUND BY THE STEAMER HOPE.

LONDON, Aug. 20. The steamer Hope, commanded by Sir Allen Young, C. B., which left here in June last in search of the crew of the steamer Eira, has arrived at Peterhead with the entire crew of that vessel. The Hope picked them up in Matotshkin straits, Nova Zembla, on the 3d of August, they having lost their ship off Franz Josef Land and journeyed in boats to the straits through the ice. Mr. Leigh Smith, commander of the Eira expedition gives the following account of its experiences On July 13d, 1881, we steamed through pack ice, and ten days later sighted Franz Josef Land. We proceeded toward Cape Ludlow, which was close to the pack, to the northward. On Aug 2 1881, we went up Nigh ngale sound, and thence to Eira harbor and erected a store house. On the 16th, we started east to look for the Jeannette, but were unable to pass Beresit's Hook. On Aug. 21 the Eira got nipped between a land floe and pack ice a mile east of Cape Flora, and sunk before we were able to save many stores. We built a hut of Cape Flora turf and stones and covered it with sails. We wintered there and during the whole time no signs of Curry appeared. Twenty nine Walrus and thirty-six bears were killed and eaten. We left Cape Flora on June 21 1882 in four boats, sailed 80 miles without seeing any ice, and reached Nova Zembla on Aug 2 When the Eira was nipped, the leak gained so rapidly that in two hours after it had been discovered it was necessary to abandon the ship. Hardly had the last man left the vessel when the ice eased and the Eira rapidly sunk A tent was first erected on the ice and the boats was subsequently built. All the boats of the Eira were saved. Most of the men saved some clothes and bedding. For sixteen nights the crew slept in a tent, from which they were at times almost blown out by rain.

The whole civilized world will rejoice that Mr Leigh Smith and the crew of the Eira have escaped the dread fate which overtook Lieut. DeLong and so many of the hapless explorers from the Jeannette In the English, as in the American expedition, the vessel was nipped and destroyed by the ice. But this time, Heaven be thanked, the crew have succeeded in making good their escape, and have returned, every man of them to Peterhead, a seaport on the east coast of Scotland, the very port, by the way from which the expedition startid for the far north 14 months back. In the summer of 1880 Mr. Smith made a short but signally successful voyage to the Arctic regions in the Eira. During this journey he reached Franz Josef Land, coasted along its southern shore and discovered a harbor, to which he gave the name of his yacht, and which, as appears by the above despatch he revisited last August. Incited to further efforts by his good fortune, he planned last year, a second voyage to Franz Josef Land with the intention of pushing his search in a northerly direction along the eastern coast of that country. He did not, however, design anything beyond a brief summer exploration. He had no thought of wintering on the ice. It was his purpose to return south in the early autumn, so that he did not make arrangements before his departure for a rendezvous with a search party in the event of disaster to the expedition. On June 13, 1881, the Eira sailed from Peterhead on her second voyage to Franz Josef Land. Some four weeks later, on July 8, she was seen by Capt Isakaen of the Norwegian schooner Proven, off the Matotschkin Shar, the narrow strait which devides Nova Zembla into two islands of nearly equal size. By a strange coincident it was on this very strait that Sir Allen Young came upon the shipwrecked seamen after their escape in boats to the Nova Zembla coast. When the Proven saw the Eira, the exploring steamer was heading northward. It appears that five days later, the Eira entered packice, and that after steaming for 10 days, she came within sight of Franz Josef Land. All that is known of her subsequent voyage, her wreck and the escape of the crew, will be found in the dispatch printed above.

NEW ENGLAND MANUFACTURERS' AND MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.

The grand opening of the Second Annual Exhibition-Fair of the New England Manufacturers' and Mechanics' Institute is announced to take place in their mammoth Exhibition Building, Huntington Avenue, Boston, on Wednesday, September 6. The exhibition promises to far surpass the brilliant display of last fall. Exhibits, from twenty-seven States of the Union, and from three foreign countries, will completely fill the immense building. The genius of the Inventor and the skill of the Mechanic will be displayed in a thousand forms. Illuminated water displays, cascades and fountains will add a charm to the busy interior. The great Southern Railroad exhibit, a repetition of the Atlanta Exposition, will undoubtedly prove of much interest to our agricultural readers. The ores, minerals, woods and field products of the South will be fully represented.

Another attractive feature of the Exhibition-Fair will be the great electric light display by Professor Edison and others. One thousand incandescent lights of Professor Edison's system, and one thousand arc lights of other companies will illuminate the vast interior at night.

As before stated, the opening ceremonies will take place on Wednesday, Sept. 6, 11 o'clock, A. M., Gov. Long presiding, assisted by the Governors of such other States as are represented by extensive exhibits. Mr. Edward Atkinson will deliver an address, and Reeves' American Band, of Providence, will enliven the occasion with choice musical selections. Exhibitors are notified to have their exhibits in complete order on the evening of September 5, as no work on exhibits will be performed on the day of the opening, A grand gala day is expected on the 6, and a large, enthusiastic attendance is anticipated

A GENEROUS ACT

That will be Appreciated by All Who Care for Their Complexion and Skin.

It is not generally known that the nervous system has a wonderful influence over the skin, but this is a fact known to medical men who have given much of their time to the study of diseases of the skin. No one can have a clear and fair complexion unmixed with blotches or pimples who is very nervous.

Whatever tends to a healthful condition of the nervous system always beautifies the complexion and removes roughness and dryness of the skin! Some skin diseases are not attended by visible signs on the surface, but an intolerable itching that renders life miserable.

We copy the following deserving and interesting compliment from the Tribune which says "Dr C. W. Benson's New Remedy, "SKIN CURE," is received by the public with great confidence and it is regarded as a very generous act on the Doctor's part to make known and prepare for general use his valuable and favorite prescription for the treatment of skin diseases, after having devoted almost his entire life to the study and treatment of nervous and skin diseases, in which he took great delight He was for a number of years Physician in charge of the Maryland Infirmary on Dermatology and anything from his hands is at once accepted as authority and valuable. The remedy is fully the article to attack the disease, both internally, through the blood, and externally, through the absorbents, and is the only reliable and rational mode of treatment These preparations are only put up for general use after having been used by the Doctor in his private practice for years, with the greatest success, and they fully merit the confidence of all classes of sufferers from skin diseases" This is for sale by all druggists. Two bottles, internal and external treatment, in one package Don't be persuaded to take any other. It costs one dollar

A BRAVE LADY.

[From the Courier]

Mrs Schoonmaker, of Creek Locks, Ulster Co, N. Y., had the misfortune to entirely lose the sight of one of her eyes, through an accident, and endured painful inflammatory action therein for two long years, the other eye finally becoming sympathetically affected, her general health seriously suffering indeed she was a mere wreck, a walking skeleton In this terrible strait she consulted Dr David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who told her at once that the injured eye must be removed She quietly but firmly said "All right, Doctor but don't give me chloroform. Let my husband sit by my side during the operation, and I will use the cry out or stir" The work was done, and the poor woman kept her word "Talk of soldierly courage! This showed greater pluck than it takes to face a hundred guns To restore her general health and give tone and strength to the system, Dr Kennedy then gave the "Favorite Remedy," which cleared the blood and imparted new life to the long suffering woman. She rapidly gained health and strength, and is now well. The "Favorite Remedy" is a priceless blessing to women No family should be without it. Your druggist has it If not send to Dr David Kennedy, Rondout, New York.
